Fusion Solutions CEO Named Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Finalist for Southwestern U.S. Region

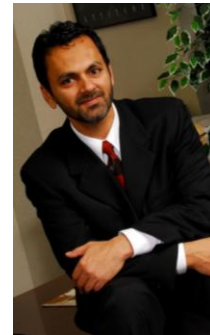

DALLAS, TX – July 10, 2008 – Fusion Solutions Inc., a leading provider of staffing solutions for telecom companies, announced today that Founder and CEO Tahir Hussain was named as a Southwest region finalist in the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Awards. Hussain was selected by an independent panel of judges comprised of local business, academic and community leaders. This award has been recognized world-wide as one of the most prestigious business awards a CEO can earn, garnering a high level of positive publicity for both the CEO and their respective companies. Entrepreneurs like Hussain who have made the finalist list, have created and sustained thriving business ventures through perseverance, ingenuity, and innovation.

“To be a finalist for this award is a great accomplishment that I am proud of. However, getting here is the result of the talent and cohesiveness of our entire organization and the amazing results we have accomplished together,” Hussain said.

Hussain founded the company in 2002, following a successful career with Ericsson where he distinguished himself in both engineering and management positions. Since its inception, Fusion Solutions has grown steadily and profitably to more than 200 employees with no outside funding. Last year the company was ranked 5th in the Inc. 500 list of fastest growing companies in America. Fusion Solutions is also ranked 2nd in the Dallas-100 list of fastest growing companies in Dallas/Fort Worth.
